Our parents' description of Bitcoin (They weren't allowed to look it up.)

"Something to do with financials. Other than that I'm not sure. Although I can say I just saw something about it the other day and I've already forgotten. Ha ha."

"I think it's a kind of money that only exists on your computer. :)"

"Saw it on the Big Bang Theory show. Really did ask one of my brokers. I don't really know. Only thing that makes any sense is to say it's an investment in the coin market."

"No idea?? Bite-size portion as big as a coin?"

and Drum, the Marine Corps Color Guard and other organizations take to the city streets for a day filled with green and gold celebrating Irish heritage. // Old Town Manassas; stpatrikparade.net
